Construction Boom Even COVID-19 cannot stop progress!

The design and construction industry continues to experience good fortune during the pandemic. Large projects like the new Marion County Justice Center, 16 Tech, plans for the new Adult Academic Health Center for IU Health, expansion to the convention center, new libraries and Washington Township Schools plan for $275 million, all contribute to a prosperous marketplace. Also, the State of Indiana reported that numbers just released show year-to-date commitments for nearly 26,000 jobs and $4.8 billion in capital investment over the next three to five years. It is good living in Indiana!

Employee News

Please welcome to the Wurster Team...

Jim Iddins

Wurster Construction has been experiencing growth throughout 2020. To support that growth we have added some new employees. We welcome Jim Iddins as a new Project Manager. Jim comes to Wurster with 37 years of experience specializing in health care, educational projects and parking garages.

Jim and his wife, Lisa, reside in Indianapolis.

Randall Schneider

Randall has joined the Legacy Living Florence team as Assistant Superintendent. He has extensive multi-family construction experience and seven years of superintendent experience.

Randall has a fiance', Destiny Mayne, and a daughter, Brianna, and lives just outside of Cincinnati.

Welcome to the Wurster Team Randall!

Rob Bennett

Rob Bennett is filling the role of Superintendent. Rob comes to Wurster with 45 years of construction experience, many of those years working on healthcare facilities including VA hospitals.

Rob and his wife have a son and daughter-in-law and two grandchildren, and live on the west side of Indianapolis. Welcome to the Wurster Team Rob!

CONGRATULATIONS

Wurster Construction Team Player of the Year

Ben Imel

A Wurster employee is chosen annually to receive the Doug Spitz Team Player Award. The award is based on four key attributes Doug, our former co-worker and brother, possessed: attitude, dedication, community and spirit. Based on nominations from his peers, Ben Imel was chosen as this year's winner. Ben goes above and beyond to fulfill these four attributes and more. He is highly respected and appreciated by his peers, executives and subcontractors. Congratulations Ben!

Wurster Way Award

Lyle McDonald

Congratulations to Lyle for receiving the Annual Wurster Way Award. Recognized by his peers and clients for consistently exhibiting the company's core values of Integrity, Honesty and Commitment. As part of the COVID team at IU Health Lyle received the following from an IUH client: "He has been a great asset to our hospital team. He is my go-to person for whatever I need." From his peers: "He bleeds Wurster blue and is always willing to give it his best."

Thank you Lyle for your dedication to your job and The Wurster Way!

Team Player of the Quarter

Joe Stephenson

Please join in congratulating our team player of the quarter for the months of July, August and September of 2020. Joe Stephenson received two nominations for his exceptional efforts. He stepped into an extremely tough and stressful situation at Henry Community Health with the installation of AHU-25. He worked 9 days straight and most days were 12+ hours long. His extensive prep for AHU-25 is one of the reasons for it's success.

Congratulations Joe. Your hard work and dedication are greatly appreciated and admired.

Excellence in Construction, Safety and Community Service

Wurster Construction has once again been recognized by ABC for our excellence in quality and safety. ABC's AQC and STEP programs provide recognition to world class construction firms that have shown a commitment to excellence in safety, and corporate and community service. Wurster Construction is proud of our staff for their relentless efforts to maintain these qualifications.

In addition to recognition from these organizations Wurster Construction has achieved an EMR of .67 for 2021 - a great safety achievement.

2020 STEP Platinum

Proud to Be an
Accredited Quality Contractor

Supporting a Mission...Million Meal Marathon

Wurster Construction was pleased to once again support the Million Meal Marathon.

Million Meal Movement feeds the hungry in our community by working with distributors to deliver meals to food banks and pantries throughout the state of Indiana.

Along with some additional volunteers more than 8,000 meals were packaged in two hours. Thank you to our volunteers!

Holiday Food Drive

You guys rock! Thank you for all the Food Drive donations. You helped many families have a Happier Holiday. Another example of our employees exhibiting The Wurster Way.
